Day Street Reserve – Fact Sheet

Day Street Reserve (327m2) is a local reserve located within Chatswood CBD. It is bounded by commercial properties and Day Street and Railway Street. The reserve is on land owned by Willoughby Council.

What facilities are available at Day Street Reserve?
Day Street Reserve provides a passive recreation area within the Chatswood CBD. The Reserve contains brick paths, seating and an open lawn area

What is a Landscape Improvements Plan and why does Day Street Reserve need one?
Day Street Reserve has been identified for renewal due to the condition of the existing reserve features. A Landscape Improvements Plan will guide the landscape upgrade and improvements works for Day Street Reserve. The Plan will ensure the reserve meets the current and future needs of the community.

What is the process involved in preparing the Improvements Plan for Day Street Reserve?
Once the initial community consultation is complete, all feedback and suggestions from the community and reserve users will be compiled and assessed, and will form the basis of the Draft Landscape Improvements Plan for the reserve.

Once a Draft Plan has been prepared, interested parties will have an opportunity to make comment during a public exhibition period. Council will consider all submissions received during this time for inclusion in the Final Landscape Improvements Plan.

How can I be involved?
Community Consultation is an essential part of developing a Landscape Improvements Plan. You can be involved in the development of the Draft Plan by:

- Answering our quick online survey at www.haveyoursaywilloughby.com.au
- Sending your comments marked to the attention of Council's Open Space Projects Officer, Meredith Paterson by posting them to Willoughby City Council, PO Box 57 Chatswood NSW 2057.

The submission period will close at 5pm, Wednesday 17th October 2018.

How can I follow the progress of the Day Street Reserve Landscape Improvements Plan?
Updates on the Plan will be available on Council's website and also at www.haveyoursaywilloughby.com.au. For enquiries about the Day Street Reserve Landscape Improvements Plan, please phone Council on 9777 1000.
