

Bicentennial Reserve playground – Fact Sheet

Bicentennial Reserve playground (445m²) is a local playground that is located adjacent to the netball courts off Small Street in Willoughby. The reserve is owned and maintained by Willoughby City Council.

What facilities are available at Bicentennial Reserve playground?

The playground is fenced and includes a double swing, play structure with slide, monkey bars, rock climbing wall and there is an open grassy area. There are two bubblers and 6 bench seats.

What is a Playground Improvements Plan and why does Bicentennial Reserve playground need one?

As per Councils Playgrounds Asset Management Plan, Council generally renews its playgrounds every fifteen years. A Playground Improvements Plan will guide the playground upgrade and improvements works for Bicentennial Reserve playground. The Plan will ensure the park meets the current and future needs of the community.

What is the process involved in preparing the Playground Improvement Plan for Bicentennial Reserve playground?

A draft Playground Improvements Plan has been prepared and is available for comment. Once the community consultation is complete, all feedback and suggestions from the community and park users will be compiled and assessed, and will inform the final Playground Improvements Plan.

How can I be involved?

Community Consultation is an essential part of developing an Improvements Plan. You can be involved in the development of the Draft Plan by:

- Answering our quick online survey at www.haveyoursaywilloughby.com.au
- Sending your comments via email under the subject 'Bicentennial Reserve Playground Improvements' to email@willoughby.nsw.gov.au
- Sending your comments marked to the attention of Council's Open Space Projects Officer, Amy Barnes by posting them to Willoughby City Council, PO Box 57 Chatswood NSW 2057.

The submission period will close at 9am, Monday 31 August 2026.

How can I follow the progress of Bicentennial Reserve Playground Improvements Plan?

Updates on the Plan will be available on Council's website and also at www.haveyoursaywilloughby.com.au. For enquiries about Bicentennial Reserve Playground Improvements Plan, please phone Council on 9777 1000.